Call For Scores

MusEcology

Contest Description

MusEcology is the international Call for Scores organized by Musica del Vivo, dedicated to compositions for solo instrument and piano.

Eligible solo instruments are:

- Soprano voice
- Flute
- Violin
- Viola
- Cello
- Saxophone
- Oboe
- Clarinet

The guiding theme is ecology. The connection to the theme may be free and personal: the piece may reflect environmental issues, natural landscapes, or impressions inspired by the natural world. A strict or programmatic link is not required.

Eligibility and Requirements

Open to composers of any age, nationality, and level (students, amateurs, professionals).

- Participants may submit multiple works; each piece requires a separate entry and the corresponding fee.

Minimum duration: 2 minutes – Maximum duration: 8 minutes.

Participation Process

The Call will take place in two phases:

01

Pre-selection

The jury will review all submitted scores. La giuria esaminerà tutte le partiture ricevute.

02

Live Final

The selected works will be performed in a concert within Musica del Vivo's season, around April 22, 2026 (Earth Day).

Entry Fee

€15 for each submitted work.
